Camp Description

This fun camp will give children the opportunity to put on an entire Shakespearean play in one week. It is suitable for all children 10 years and above. Older children will be given more substantial roles, while younger less demanding, making it suitable for all abilities. There will be a garden performance on the last day of camp free to family and friends.

- a physical warm-up to music
- vocal exercises including tongue twisters, Shakespearean quotes,
- theatre sport games, resonance , articulation and breathing
- exercises.
- Improvisation and character role play
- afternoon rehearsals in groups

Each child will be e-mailed a copy of the script to be printed out, and children should know their lines BEFORE coming to camp. Children will also be rehearsing in their costumes which will be made to measure before the camp commences.
